

Diploma in Creative Media (3 x A Level equiv.)

This qualification is taught via a combined curriculum covering the following qualification which

Why study the combined qualifications in Creative Media Practice?

Creative media is embedded in our everyday life, from how we communicate, work and spend our leisure time. Web design, digital graphics, game design and information design are some of the possible careers stemming from the successful completion of this qualification.

What is the course structure?

The Extended Diploma includes two learning modules, assessed through four mandatory assessment units. Learners must complete all assessment units and achieve a Pass grade or above in each assessment criterion.

		Extended Diploma (3 A Levels)
Year 12	Autumn Term	Unit A1: Introduction to Creative Media	Assessment Unit 1 (it)0.01
		Unit A2: Digital Graphics
	Spring Term	Unit A3: Layout design for print
		Unit A4: Web design
Year 13	Autumn Term	Unit B1: Personal Progression	Assessment Unit 2 (it)0.02
		Unit B2: Creative Industry Response
	Spring Term	Unit B1: Personal Progression
		Unit B2: Creative Industry Response

Which activities will I be engaged in during the course?

Students will develop sophisticated practical skills in varied applications of design, business studies and ICT. The course has a strong practical nature, where students will develop solutions to demonstrate their understanding of the academic reasoning behind their designs.

<https://www.youtube.com/user/PhlearnLLC> - Excellent graphic design/image processing tutorials
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4Mf0h3HphEA&list=PLEA1FEF17E1E5C0DA> - Learn to code
<https://www.youtube.com/user/3dsMaxHowTos> - 3D modelling online tutorials
<http://www.3dtotal.com/> - 3D modelling, lighting, texturing and rendering tutorials

Further information: Neil Vano (Head of