

BTEC National Level 3 Creative Media Diploma (3 x A Level equiv.)

be studied on its own or alongside one or two A-Levels.

Students will develop a range of skills and knowledge in creative media. The course is designed to be studied on its own or alongside one or two A-Levels. The course is designed to be studied on its own or alongside one or two A-Levels. The course is designed to be studied on its own or alongside one or two A-Levels.

What is the course structure?

Students will study the course over two years, with assessment in each year. The course is designed to be studied on its own or alongside one or two A-Levels.

		Extended Diploma (3 A-Levels)
Year 12	Autumn Term	Unit A1: Image Making
	Spring Term	Unit A1: Page layout design for digital media Unit A2: Creative Project
	Summer Term	Unit A2: Creative Project Unit A2: Creative Project
Year 13	Autumn Term	Unit B1:
	Spring Term	Unit B1:

Which activities will be assessed in the course?

Students will develop sophisticated practical skills in varied applications of design, business studies and ICT. The course is designed to be studied on its own or alongside one or two A-Levels.

The following link will provide access directly to the BTEC specification for these courses:

<https://qualifications.pearson.com/content/dam/pdf/BTEC-Nationals/creative-media-practice/specification/level-3-creative-media-practice-diploma-specification.pdf>

<https://www.youtube.com/user/PhlearnLLC> - Excellent graphic design/image processing tutorials

<https://www.youtube.com/user/3dsmax101> - 3D modelling online tutorials

<https://www.youtube.com/user/3dsmax101> - 3D rendering tutorials

Further information: Neil Vano (Head of ICT)